Adjourn

9:20 pm

On August 1st, RYC Members enjoyed our first in-person event since the February monthly meeting. Our picnic was a bring your own lunch and personal protective equipment affair, but came off pretty well. It was great so get on the water, either on a dinghy or the gracious provision of socially-distanced pontoon cruise by Allen and Ruth Penticoff. Although the boat-ramp parking lot was completely full, access to launching was not crowded at all. Ken Lesko sailed his Capri 14.2 before lunch, Marty O'Connor briefly sailed his American 14-6, and Scott Foster launched and docked his Butterfly before eating lunch. After the rest of the attendees gathered at the Red Oak Shelter had finished eating, many of them regrouped at the dock to board Allen's Sun Cruiser Pontoon boat. Winds were light, but it wasn't terribly hot and sunny, so the boating was quite relaxing.
